Mr. Robt. Garrett.

Dear Sir—

I enclose you an impression of a gold Medal I would like to sell you.
I have never been able to hear of but two others besides the one I have. I wrote to Mr. Jefferson Davis to know the history of the Medal. he says he has never heard of but one other besides the one in the possession of his family—and that was sold in N. Y. at a very high price.
I also enclose you a copy of a portion of a letter from

Miss Varina Davis

I will be glad to hear from you on the subject.

I regret to say that it would not suit me to purchase

I have, however, taken the liberty of sending your

Miss Davis says
The medal was, I think, struck in Paris, there were two - one in gold of Mr Davis & the other in silver of Genl. Beauregard profile. There may have been many others, but these are all I saw. I have them now, and believe they are valued very highly. - I do not think there are more than two dies - How many medals were struck from them cannot ^{be} ~~be~~ ^{ascertain}ed, at least in this country.

The above I have copied from a letter written to me by Miss Davis, in regard to some Confederate relics.
